TOP 10 SOURCES OF WORKPLACE STRESS

10. The treadmill syndrome. Too much to do at once, requiring the 24-hour workday.
8. Doubt. Employees aren’t sure what is happening, where things are headed.
6. Unclear company direction and policies.
5. Career and job ambiguity. Things happen without the employee knowing why.
4. Inconsistent performance management processes. Employees get raises but no reviews or get positive evaluation, but are laid off afterward.
2. Lack of two-way communication up and down.
1. Too much or too little to do. The feeling of not contributing and having a lack of control.
